A True Culinary Indonesian Sharing Experience - The Rijstafel for 2

IDR 1,300

During the colonial period of Indonesia the Dutch lived rather lavish lives with plenty of servants to assist in making them as comfortable as possible, eating was not any different and the choice given was either Colonial Dutch or Indonesian Cuisine. Whenever they referred to Indonesian cooking they used the basic phrase "Rijstafel" meaning Rice Table. Contrary to European cuisine which was mostly plated, Indonesian dishes were always served in the center of the table surrounding a large basket of steamed white rice.

Ramayana Dance is an epic poem of courage, magic and humor, containing 188 books and 24,000 verses divided into 500 songs. The principle actors of this drama are Rama (incarnation of the God Whisnu), his wife Sinta, his brother Laksmana, King Rahwana of Ceylon, Jatayu, King of the birds (also known as Garuda), Sangriwa king of the wanaras (huge monkeys) Hanoman (white Monkey General). The Ramayana story is especially important for Hindus because it is possible for ordinary people to identify with the characters and situation. The heroes and heroines are emulated for their positive qualities of honesty, devotion, perseverance, fidelity, and bravery. Strongly evident in this story is the portrayal of pure evil and those who have the courage to resist and overcome the evil.

Legong Dance, a very classical entertainment, a welcoming dance. The name was taken from the word leg meaning 'beautiful movements' and Gong meaning melodious sound from the traditional Balinese music instruments. Beautiful movements accompanied by instruments. This dance is one of the most difficult dances to learn because it has very complex movements and the dancer should have sensitivity to Gong sounds. Legong dance is performed by female dancers, usually consisting of three dancers. They are accompanied by special Gong called Gamelan Semar Pagulingan. Gamelan Semar Pagulingan is smaller than the other traditional instruments and has specific sounds.

Barong Dance is probably the most well-known dance. It is also another story telling dance, narrating the fight between good and evil. This dance is the classic example of Balinese way of acting out mythology, resulting in myth and history being blended into one reality.

Kecak Dance Also known as the fire dance. Also known as the Ramayana Monkey Chant, the piece, performed by a circle of 100 or more performers wearing checked cloth around their waists, percussively chanting "cak" and throwing up their arms, depicts a battle from the Ramayana where the monkey-like Vanara helped Prince Rama fight the evil King Ravana. However, Kecak has roots in sanghyang, a trance-inducing exorcism dance.

Keroncong Live music, it has been evolving since the arrival of the Portuguese, who brought with them European instruments. By the early 1900s, it was considered a low-class urban music. This changed in the 1930s, when the rising Indonesian film industry began incorporating Keroncong, and then even more so in the mid- to late 1940s, when it became associated with the struggle for independence.
