The Seminyak Ball

On New Year's Eve, we would like to transport you back to the Bali of the 1930s, when the Golden Age of Travel was at its height and Bali was one of the most exotic places in the world.

Our New Year's Eve Dinner & Dance extravaganza includes an impressive line-up of Balinese dance performances and a bountiful Balinese buffet banquet served from a variety of food stalls within a 1930s' Balinese setting. You only have to witness a few of the island's Hindu festivals - enhanced by a clever use of natural materials - to get an idea of what our fabulous party has in store. The handmade decorations for this auspicious event are an authentic reproduction of the Balinese ornamentation used at weddings, tooth filing ceremonies and other rites of passage.

At our pre-dinner cocktail party, you will be treated to a performance of the Balinese Genjek Dance, which is a tradition that originates from the Karangasem regency of East Bali. The performers sing an amusing, joyful song, partly acapella and partly accompanied by instruments such as a small flute, drums and the Balinese bamboo rindik.

You will then be greeted at Santan, the venue for our lavish feast, with the 'Panyembrahma', a secular welcome dance of flowers, smiles and gentle gestures. During an unforgettable dinner, you can enjoy our live band, performing a repertoire of classic songs and jazzy tunes, interspersed with yet more Balinese dance performances including the Cendrawasih Dance, which illustrates the elaborate courtship rituals of the Birds of Paradise, and rare performance of the Old Man Mask Dance, which is normally reserved for religious rituals, temple festivals and sacred ceremonies.

The spectacular shows leading up to midnight will continue at Sanje, our open-air beachside venue, with a magical performance featuring the Barong Landung, a pair of giant human puppets almost three metres high. This is followed by the opportunity to make a New Year's wish as you release an environmentally-friendly flying lantern over the ocean, which will lure out the Baruna - the sea god - to dance for you. Our entertainment continues with a fire dance, the exciting countdown to midnight and the New Year, and a thrilling firework spectacle, incorporating not just our own fireworks but an extraordinary, multiple display that can be seen all the way down Bali's dramatic coastline, past Kuta and Jimbaran as far as Uluwatu on the extreme southwest tip. You are invited to continue dancing and partying under the stars to DJ music into the early hours.

IDR 1,800,000++/ person. Including Passion Fruit Bellini Welcome Drink

Special Dress Code

We would like our guests to dress up for the occasion to pay homage to Bali's glory era of the tropical 1930s, when the ladies wore glamorous holiday frocks and gentlemen wore uniforms or starched white linen shirts, trousers and pith helmets, while others dressed in the style of wealthy planters in white suits and panama hats, or in the bohemian artist fashion, favouring berets and loose shirts. Alternatively, if you wish to wear Balinese dress, we will provide you with traditional Balinese costumes – Sarong, Saput and Udeng (headband) for the men, and Sarong, Kabaya and Selendang (sash) for the ladies, which will be delivered to your room at turn-down-time on 30th December. We recommend men to accessorise with white shirts and sandals, and ladies to accessorise with camisoles and wedged sandals. Our team will assist you to dress up for the occasion.
